? WHAT DOES THE LEHI RODEO, DELICIOUS HAMBURGERS AND FAMOUS MINIATURE FLOATS HAVE IN COMMON ?

The Lehi Round-Up Rodeo has had a close association with the miniature float parade for the past 86 years. Local churches build the miniature floats and provide hundreds of volunteers for the rodeo and city celebration. Volunteers are used to man the concessions stands at the rodeo, serving signature hamburgers, pop and candy. No alcohol is served. Due to the large volunteer effort the rodeo remains family friendly, making the Lehi RoundUp Rodeo a unique event. The money raised from the concessions stands is then used to help cover the costs of building the miniature floats.

The Lehi miniature parade remains one of the trademark parades in the state and was recently voted #1 Best Parade in Utah County. Local volunteers continue to build floats and children ride and pull them. There are no parades to compare and on Friday night and Saturday morning citizens line the streets to see these wonderful creations. Over the years, the Celebration Committee has added other events to the week-long celebration such as: a picnic in the park, outdoor nighttime movie, a baby contest, 5K & 10K, a city Bar-BQ, Round-Up Market, Animals Got Talent, Chuck Wagon Breakfast and an all day Family Fun Day on Saturday after the parade. With hard working volunteers and dedicated leaders the Lehi Round-Up Rodeo and Celebration will continue to be a classic city celebration for many long years to come.
