LEHI ROUND-UP RODEO
Thursday, June 25th, 2026

Meet our

2026 Lehi Round-Up Rodeo Royalty

Terra Hicken
2026 Lehi Round-Up Queen

Terra Hicken is the daughter of Dave and Tanya Hicken of Heber, Utah. She is a proud seventh-generation native of Wasatch County and carries on a deep-rooted legacy in her community. Terra has held multiple rodeo queen titles and was named fourth runner-up at the 2026 Miss Rodeo Utah pageant. Outside of her role as a rodeo queen, Terra enjoys riding horses, working, and learning to sew. She especially values the spirit and unity that the Lehi Round-Up Rodeo fosters each year. The celebration brings together people from all walks of life, creating a welcoming and inclusive atmosphere for everyone to enjoy.

Jensyn Hamilton
2026 1st Attendant

Jensyn Hamilton of Pleasant Grove, Utah, is the daughter of Les and Brooke Hamilton of Vernal, Utah. She embodies strong Western values, community pride, and a deep love for the horse industry. Jensyn is passionate about sharing that lifestyle with others, serving as a positive role model while promoting the sport of rodeo and the traditions that Lehi carries. Jensyn has held titles in the Lindon City Rodeo royalty, is a horseback riding instructor, and a licensed cosmetologist. In her free time, Jensyn enjoys pickleball, weightlifting, fly fishing, and camping. Looking ahead, her ambition is to build a future in the equine industry while continuing to grow and maintain her cosmetology career.

Lydia Knapp
2026 2nd Attendant

Lydia Knapp is the daughter of Chris and Lisa Knapp of Lindon, Utah. She believes her true crown is found in the service she gives to her community and strives to be a welcoming connection for everyone she meets. Lydia offers a friendly, approachable presence while sharing the meaning behind Western traditions, helping each person feel included and leaving them with a deeper appreciation for the animals and athletes that make this way of life so special. Lydia has previously served in the Lindon Days and Pony Express Rodeo royalties. She is currently employed as a pharmacy technician and previously served in the Albania Tirana Mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Her interests and hobbies include photography, floral design, making sourdough bread, watercolor painting, skiing, soccer, hiking, camping, and cattle ranching.
