2023 Lehi Round-Up Rodeo Royalty

Lindsey Ivie
2023 Lehi Round-Up Queen

Lindsey Ivie, the daughter Chris and Michelle Ivie of Benjamin, Utah, is your Miss Lehi Round Up Rodeo 2023. She has a love for the rich history of the Lehi Round Up Rodeo and Celebration, which has become a treasured family tradition. Lindsey is a former Miss Pony Express Days Rodeo, Miss Spanish Fork Fiesta Days Rodeo, and was also the first attendant in the 2021 Miss Lehi Round Up Royalty. The past two years she has served as a Rodeo Houston Pivot girl and, in 2022, she had the privilege of being a Wrangler National Finals Rodeo flag girl. Lindsey is certified in equine massage and enjoys helping our equine athletes feel their best. She loves everything to do with the outdoors, including camping, hiking, and trail riding with friends and family, and is also a huge hunting enthusiast. With her passion for service, love of rodeo, and ambition to better herself, Lindsey looks forward to serving as Miss Lehi Round Up Rodeo.

Emma Stowe
2023 Lehi Round-Up 1st Attendant

Emma Stowe of Taylorsville, Utah, will represent the 2023 Lehi Round Up Rodeo as the first attendant. She is the daughter of Ryan and Lisa Stowe. Emma is a recent high school graduate who has a deep passion for equine health and studies. She is currently employed at Mountain Point Equine Hospital, while pursuing a veterinary technician and equine massage certificate. Her long-term goal is to become an equine physical therapist. For the past 10 years Emma has enjoyed success competing in 4H equine-related events and is currently serving as a Utah 4H State Horse Ambassador. Emma has held the titles of Western Stampede Rodeo Queen and Summit County Fair 1st Attendant. As an outdoor enthusiast, she enjoys riding dirt bikes, hunting, boating, snowboarding, teaching riding lessons to kids in her local community, and volunteering at an equine therapy center for kids with disabilities. She also loves spending time with her family.

Terra Hicken
2023 Lehi Round-Up 2nd Attendant

Terra Hicken was selected as the second attendant to the 2023 Lehi Round Up Rodeo Royalty. She is the daughter of Dave and Tanya Hicken of Heber, Utah. Terra graduated from high school with high honors in 2022 and is currently attending Utah Valley University, pursuing a degree in Business. Her rodeo queen titles include 2021 Mountain Valley Stampede Junior Queen, 2022 Dinosaur Round Up Rodeo Queen, and 2022 Miss Hooper Tomato Days 2nd Attendant. Aside from riding horses and competing in rodeo queen pageants, Terra enjoys snowmobiling, swing dancing, and swimming.
